Top Stories

The word is that Rihanna's new video for Pour it Up was banned about 10 minutes after it hit the airwaves. As the story goes, she was trying to out twerk Miley Cyrus. I really didn't see that. What I did see was dancers, half naked dancing on the pole, dropping it Baghdad style onto a soaking wet floor and Rihanna dry humping a chair. At one point there is a scene where Rihanna's "bra" is pulled down and she's sporting the same type of nipple covers that almost got Janet Jackson condemned to hell. The video IS one step outside of porn.

And what is a Rihanna story without a Chris Brown follow up?

The guy that I thought was next in line for Michael Jackson's crown seems to be more focused on fucking up than he is on getting down. Chris is facing yet another charge for punching a guy in the face at the W Hotel in Washington D.C.

Lucky for him, there's no video tape of the incident and a secret service agent overheard the alleged victim deny the punch.

That didn't take long!

Anthony Weiner's sexting partner Sydney Leathers has gone from lame ass porn flick to full blown porn to working the pole.

I'm not sure exactly how Vivid works their promotion but back in the day it seems like it was the exact opposite.

You started out on the pole, did a little soft core and then moved into hard core.

While performing at a GAY Heaven, the most famous gay night club in London, Lady Gaga decided that it was the right time and the right place to bare it all, which luckily for us straight guys, made it's way to the web.

She gave the crowd a frontal flash before going full out nude as she left the stage.

The sad fact is, had she done that in America...arrested!

Health

Alright fellas no matter how old you are...none of us are getting younger.

We live in a society here in the United States where there is a dozen fast food restaurants usually about 20 minutes away.

This has lead to the United States being listed at number eight on the World Health Organization's list of the most obese countries.

It's a worldwide epidemic.

- 7.1 Million people will die from heart disease.
- By 2030 it's estimated that 11 million people will die from cancer.
- By 2030 336 million people will be diabetic.

All because 2/3 of Americans over 20 are obese!

What can we do to solve this?

The obvious answer is diet and exercise...there's nothing wrong with that.

But what type of diet? What type of exercise?

We also live in a society where there is new diet and a new exercise program that guarantees all kinds of incredible results almost weekly.

Sure, you can eat nothing but meat or soup and do an Insanity workout every day until you trim down to your goal weight but unless you plan to maintain these extreme changes to your lifestyle for the rest of your life you could find yourself putting the weight back on or sick five years down the road.

Instead of trying to make changes to your life that will be impossible to maintain, we should try to do something that is easy to incorporate into the lifestyle that we are already living?

That's why I recommend juicing!

The Hamilton Beach Juice Big Mouth Pro along with the NutriBullet are my juicers of choice.

I'm the type of guy that likes to eat fruit - though I hardly do - and hates to eat vegetables.

With the juicer, I can get them both in bulk with ease. I just load the product in the juicer and within minutes I'm getting carrots, kale, spinach, a couple of apples, bananas, pears, avocado or any combination I can think up all in one drink that I can down in minutes.

"If you're not big into fruits and vegetables, it's a good way to get them in. It can help you meet daily recommendations in one drink" and be part of a healthy diet, says Barr, MPH, RD, LDN, who works at Wilmington's Center for Community Health at Christiana Care Health System.

You can't depend on juicing alone for your answer to getting your fruits and vegetables in.

With the juicer, you are removing the skin which has a ton of nutrients and the pulp which has the fiber that your body needs.

Which is where the NutriBullet comes in, it extracts everything!

So give it a try! It can be combined with your normal diet but now it will have a boost of vitamins and minerals.

Now, if I can just stop drinking beer!

Hamilton Beach Big Mouth Pro

- 1/4 Head of Cabbage
- 2 Medium Granny Smith Apples
- 1 Handful of Kale
- 1 Handful of Baby Spinach
- 1/2 Lime
- 2 Celery Stalks
- 1 Handful of Parsley

I like this recipe for the color, it's a nice green.

I've made some juices that end up with a brown or some unknown color and thought they are healthy it's just not a good look.

I'm not going to lie, the after taste is awful because of the cabbage but it's the cabbage that gives this juice it's blast of energy due to the B6.

The original recipe calls for just the cabbage, spinach and kale.

I usually switch out the celery with cucumber and the apple and lime are just for taste.

Most importantly here's the vitamin and mineral breakdown...

Of the Daily Value %

- 161% of Vitamin A
- 428% of Vitamin C
- 50% of Calcium
- 85% Iron
- 75% of B6
- 429% of Copper

And the Vitamin K is off the charts. Vitamin K is important in preventing liver cirrhosis, liver cancer, prostate cancer and diabetes. It is also helpful in digestion and to prevent heart disease.

NutriBullet

- 1 Small Handful of Strawberries
- 1 Small Handful of Blackberries
- 1 Small Handful of Blueberries
- 1 Small Handful of Raspberries
- 1 Handful of Kale
- 1 Handful of Spinach
- 5 Ounces of water

Again, I like this recipe for the color.

It has a nice dark red color, which is nice.

With the NutriBullet, it's the same as eating everything whole...there is nothing lost in the conversion from a solid to a juice so you are getting the skin and the pulp of each fruit and vegetable.

The water is thrown in to thin everything out so that you aren't drinking a thick veggie and fruit shake.

Here's the breakdown of the Daily Value %

- 221% of Vitamin A
- 965% of Vitamin C
- 85% of Calcium
- 222% of Iron
- 112% of Folate
- 126% of Niacin
- 155% of Riboflavin
- 226% of B6
- 155% of Vitamin E
- 850% of Copper

And again the Vitamin K is off the charts with a whopping 2740% of the daily value.

No worries, Vitamin K has low toxicity so you can blast your body with a vitamins that is essential in preventing a number of life threatening diseases.

Faded Glory Relaxed Jeans

With all the designer options out there a lot of us without the cash to spend $70-$100 plus on a pair of jeans might find ourselves sitting on the fashion and comfort sideline.

These jeans break that cycle!

Not only are they fashionable, they provide styles with the same type of fit that you'll find in your big ticket jeans.

The difference is, that at $9.96 a pop, you can stock your closet with 3 pairs of these for cost of one pair of Calvin Klein.

Fruit of the Loom Hoodie

It's getting cold outside - at least in my part of the world.

The Fruit of the Loom Hooded Sweatshirt not only keeps me warm but the fabric is so comfortable it's like I'm wearing a blanket with a hood.

Unlike other sweatshirts that are either short in the arms or too tight around my belly, the cut of this hoodie is damn near perfect. I usually have a problem with the length of the arms as well, but again...perfect!

Priced at $12.61, it's warm stylish and affordable.

K Swiss

I'm just a believer in the brand!

I have two pair of K Swiss, one the I bought eleven years ago and the other about seven years ago and they are both in excellent condition. I can run a cloth with some soap and water on them right now and people would think that they were practically new.

They're still as comfortable as the first day I put them on!

I've tried other brands and this without question the best.

As an added value, you can go to their website and find great last chance bargains.

Top Products

Hamilton Beach Big Mouth Pro Juicer - $58.99

As you know I've been on this whole juice kick.

Here's the breakdown on the first one I bought.

Pros

- Makes juice
- Has a wider mouth, meaning less prep time
- With a faster blade, it's less likely your juice will be full of chunks or product will get stuck.

Cons

- Lots of waste
- The skin is lost which contains a lot of fiber and additional nutrients.
- Harder to clean. They say that it can be rinsed but if you don't get in the cracks and crevices you'll end up with rotten specs of product contaminating your juice.

NutriBullet Juice Extractor - $119

Pros

- Makes juice
- Everything goes into one cup and you extract
- Makes a serving size each time, when you're done you can screw on a lid to go or a handle to drink it now
- Extracts nuts and seeds which are vital for energy
- Easy to clean...use, rinse, done!
- Nothing is wasted, everything is broken down

Cons

- You have to add some form of liquid to make a juice
- Most of the extractions end up really thick. Because of the max water/liquid line, too much product becomes a fruit and vegetable shake.
- Harder to maintain a consistent flavor without following a recipe. Unlike the straight juicer that juices something like a small lime which just add a hint of lime, with the NutriBullet a whole small lime could make you mixture impossible to drink...so you have to be careful to measure what you're putting in.

Bettie Page Reveals All

The world's most recognized pin-up model icon Bettie Page narrates the trials and tribulations that she had to endure en route to becoming a cultural icon.

The film features a host of celebrities who have been inspired by Bettie.

I don't know about you but I could watch an hour and a half of just her photos rolling across the screen.

IN THEATRES NOW

Last Vegas

Three sixty-something friends take a break from their day-to-day lives to throw a bachelor party in Las Vegas for their last remaining single pal.

Morgan Freeman, Robert DeNiro, Michael Douglas and Kevin Klein...you can't go wrong!

Bad Grandpa

86 year-old Irving Zisman is on a journey across America with the most unlikely companion, his 8 year-old Grandson Billy in 'Jackass Presents: Bad Grandpa'.

This October, the signature Jackass character Irving Zisman (Johnny Knoxville) and Billy (Jackson Nicoll) will take movie audiences along for the most insane hidden camera road trip ever captured on camera.

Carrie

A reimagining of the classic horror tale about Carrie White (Chloe Grace Moretz), a shy girl outcast by her peers and sheltered by her deeply religious mother (Julianne Moore), who unleashes telekinetic terror on her small town after being pushed too far by her peers at their senior prom.

The Conjuring

Based on a true story, Ed and Lorraine Warren who were American paranormal investigators and authors associated with prominent cases of haunting. Their reports inspired the Amityville Horror. The Warrens come to the assistance of the Perron family, who are experiencing increasingly disturbing events in their farmhouse in Harrisville, Rhode Island in 1971.

I have to say that as far as thing that frighten me , the film has it all.

It starts off with a seemingly possessed doll and just rock and rolls it's way through what seems to be a happy family moving into a nice farm house, until things get serious.

Probably one of the best demonic possession/haunting films I've seen since The Exorcist. RENT IT!

Now you see me

A mix of magic and drama. It's like watching a tricked out (pardon the pun) version of Harry Potter. One of the most entertaining films I've seen in years

Hangover 3

After watching the film, there were too many elements missing from the other two, elements that made the films hilarious. First, they aren't hung over! But, they are plenty aggressive! If you want an action film...fine! Comedy...SKIP IT!

Album of the Month

Katy Perry's Prism is her fourth studio album. It is rumored to be inspired by Swedish dance music, I haven't been exposed to enough Swedish music to verify that or not.

What I do know is the first single Roar, has taken over the air-waves. You will probably hear it played during the Super Bowl and it may make it's way to the NBA finals, it's a true anthem tune. Another hot track is Dark Horse ft. Juicy J. This HAS to be the next single. And that's where the amazing stops. If her record company strings the singles out over the course of 18 months, Prism might have a long shelf life but for the most part it's just a collection of radio ready tunes. Like too many of today's Pop artist it's very vanilla. ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

Listen

Name that tune

On Friday nights we have a name that tune contest on our Facebook page. We list the lyrics and our FB friends provide the song title and artist for a feature in the following months issue.

This months winner...David Zeke Stone!

- Jane Says - Jane's Addiction
- Little Lion Man - Mumford & Sons
- Across the Universe - Beatles

Lorde
Royals

Varied Thoughts

Bill Maher actually turned me on to this.

Yes, there is an entire website dedicated to showing some of the more colorful people who shop at Wal-Mart.

This month we feature the booty shots.

Enjoy!

People of Wal-Mart

Who'd you Rather?

Ann Coulter

Or

Sarah Palin

TFM Poll: 0% Ann 100% Sarah Palin

I've been an O. State football fan practically since birth. As a student, my first day on campus I ate my lunch in the stands of the horseshoe...you used to access to the stadium back then. I think I love them a bit too much. During the Jim Tressel years I actually had to condition myself to sit calmly and watch the game in fear that I just might have a heart attack...I would get so worked up. Now that Urban and the Buckeyes are 21-0, how am I going to handle the 1st loss?

A woman with long, dark, wavy hair is posing on a beach. She is wearing a bikini with a patriotic theme: the top has blue straps with white stars and red and white striped side panels, and the bottom is blue with white stars. She is sitting on the sand, leaning against a white concrete structure. The background shows a green lawn and some foliage. The entire image is framed by a thick red border.

20 Mika Brzezinski

The co-host of MSNBC's Morning Joe, Mika Brzezinski is more than just Joe Scarborough's side kick.

She's an activist and author of All Things at Once a motivation book meant to help women of all ages cope with the challenges of their personal and professional life.

Beautiful and Brainy!

19 Scarlett Johansson

Ms. Johansson is known as one of the most sexiest women on the planet. She is regularly featured (as she is here) on most "sexy" countdowns. She recently joined the long list of celebrities who bared all for the world via camera phone...thanks!

18 Sienna Miller

This Brit actress/model/fashion designer has a fairly decent acting career but she may be most known for the super sexy blonde that Jude Law cheated on...unfortunately. She has a few nude (full frontal) pics that she is suing over from her film Hippie Hippie Shake but I'm sure the poor guy couldn't help himself.

17 Angel Vain

When I began to put this list together, there were several names that shot to the top of my mind. Several are still on the list captured at a time when they were or are at their best...then there is Angel Vain. I thought she was one of the hottest blondes ever but then I discovered that she's put on a good 50 or 60 lbs., maybe more. I had to keep her on the list. She still has a great face and big IS beautiful too!

16 Samantha Saint

Yeah buddy, we had to throw in a porn star but not just any porn star, Samantha was nominated by AVN & XBIZ as 2012's Best New Starlet, Starlet of the Year and for Porn Website of the Year. She follow that up with nominations in 2013 for Female Performer of the Year. That's hot!

15 Sasha Bonilova

This lovely blonde from the Ukraine was Playboy's Playmate of the month in May of 2011. She has a lot going for her including a 36E breast size and they're all natural.

At 5'7" and 120 lbs., you can see her coming before she enters the room.

14 Carin Ashley

As beautiful as she is, we were able to find photos but very little information.

Who is she?

Apparently, she's been featured a a number of Playboy's extra issues, FHM and ads for Miller Lite...so, I guess she's just getting started.

13 Masha Lund

The best way to describe Masha, in one word exotic. She made her debut as a model for the energy drink Rock Star Energy, since she has graced the covers of FHM and Maxim. She's also been featured in a number of music videos.

She is fluent in three languages - beauty and brains are always nice - and plays the piano.

12 Rebecca Romijn

The actress that never made blue look so good in her role as Mystique in the X-men films. Her height - 5'11" - was something that she was teased about in grade school.

Those idiots had know idea she was destined to be a model/actress. Who's laughing now?

11 Kate Upton

Probably best known for her appearances in Sports Illustrated Magazine, she is also the cover girl for Vanity Fair's 100th anniversary issue. She's been featured on too many covers to mention and was ranked the fifth sexiest models by MODELS magazine. AskMen ranks her 3 out of 99 and TFM ranks her...see the number above.

10 Marisa Miller

Another beauty from Sports Illustrated, Marisa is ALSO a Victoria's Secret model...that, my friend is known as the double whammy! She is also the very first spokeswoman in the history of Harley Davidson. If that's not hot, I don't know what is.

9 Joanna Krupa

Joanna has mannequin type good looks. The polish born actress is best know for her appearances on Dancing with the Stars and The Real Housewives of Miami. She has been featured twice on the cover of Playboy and was once a model for Fredrick's of Hollywood lingerie. A TMZ feature named her the sexiest model in the World...close!

8 Heidi Klum

Heidi is into just about everything! The German native is a model, television host, fashion designer, television producer and overall businesswoman.

Klum is the first German model to become a Victoria's Secret Angel and she's the official ambassador for Barbie's 50th anniversary. Busy, busy, busy...

7 Gemma Atkinson

She's from Bury, Greater Manchester and I'm sure her greater good looks have buried a few model's hopes...sorry couldn't resist.

She found fame as a soap opera actress and has gone on film, the stage, games and even music videos.

6 Candice Swanepoel

Forbes 10th top earning model on the planet, Candice was discovered at a flea market.

She's been on the cover of everything, her resume is so extensive it would be insulting to try to mention everything she's done without leaving something out.

5 Blake Lively

Though she's gotten some big press for her selfies lost recently, she is ALSO an actress.

She's starred on the television show Gossip Girl and has appeared in the films Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants and the Green Lantern. Again, she just might be best known for taking nude photos of herself...thanks.

4 Anna Kournikova

Let me start with a confession...she isn't one of my personal favorites.

She has made her way to number two based solely on the fact that men seem to love her to death.

My best guess at this extreme level of fascination is that she's an athlete which means she's in great shape...that's ALWAYS sexy. It's also doesn't hurt that she plays a sport where the attire is typically a short skirt.

Despite the fact that you can find more than a dozen hot upskirt photos of fellow tennis player Serena Williams, we were hard pressed to find ONE of Anna.

The closest we came was a sweaty shot of her backside while she was bent over...that's not sexy.

And THAT could be the reason she's sexy.

3 Pamela Anderson

Pam has reached the plateau of OFFICIAL SEX SYMBOL. What's not sexy about Pam?

- She's been on the cover of Playboy 13 times!
- She has TWO sex tapes.
- She's been on Dancing with the Stars

But on a more serious not, she supports PETA and most recently Anderson ran the New York marathon...and finished!

She completed the 26 mile marathon with a time of 5:41:03...that's a pace of 13:02 a mile at age 46.

The run helped raise $75,000 for Haiti relief.

That's major sexy!

2 Farrah Fawcett

She has one of the most famous posters known to man!

We all know and loved her as Jill Monroe on the television show Charlie's Angels. She is one of TV Guide's top television stars of ALL TIME!

Believe it or not, Farrah actually rise to stardom was the result of the poster, not vice versa. She was her own stylist for the shoot and picked the photo. That poster sold 20 million copies.

1 Marilyn Monroe

Marilyn Monroe was a blonde sex symbol when blonde was still in black and white...need we say more?

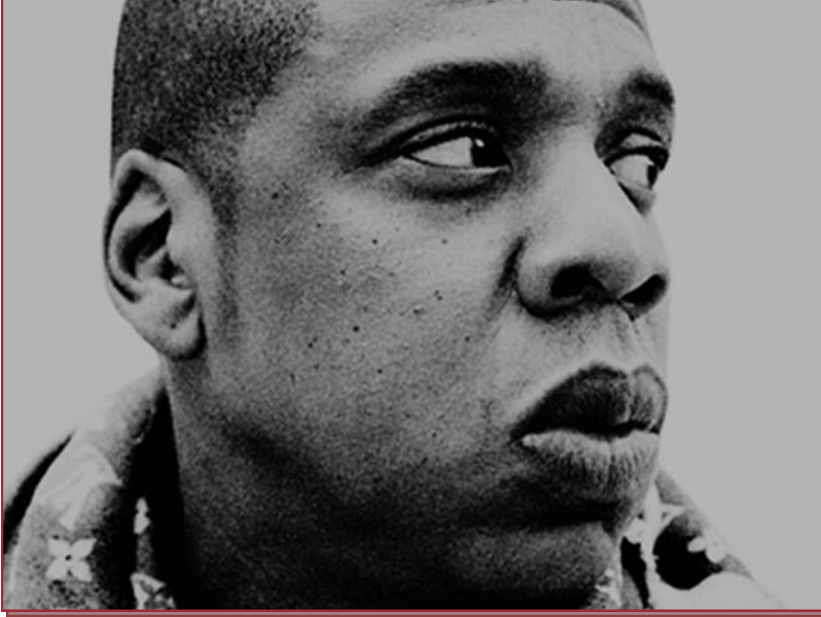

Jack Watson

Jay Z's Dollar$ not making Sense

followed by Damon Dash and Biggs selling their interest in Roc-A-Fella and Jay Z running both companies.

This was just the beginning of Jay Z's business dealings.

- He founded the clothing line Rocawear along with Damon Dash, eventually taking it over and selling it to Iconix Brand Group for $20 million.
- He is the owner of the 40/40 Club an upscale sports club that originated in New York City but has expanded to Atlantic City and Chicago.

Jay Z is considered by many to be one of the most prolific rap artist of our generation.

From the Marcy Housing projects in the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn, he dropped out of high school and began selling drugs.

It wasn't until his mother got tired of him banging beats out on a table and bought him boom box, that he became interested in music.

He was featured on a few singles, battled LL Cool J and increased his audience as a hype man/featured artist during Big Daddy Kane concerts.

With no record deal in the works, he formed Roc-A-Fella Records with Damon Dash and Kareem Biggs in 1995, selling CD's out of his car.

Striking a deal with Priority Records to distribute his records, he released Reasonable Doubt which featured beats from super producers DJ Premiere and Super DJ Clark Kent. The album reached #23 on the Billboard charts and eventually went on the be named one of the 500 greatest albums of all time by Rolling Stone.

After several hits and semi-successful albums, Jay Z was named president of Def Jam Records which was

- Jay Z is invested in the company Carol's Daughter, a line of beauty products.
- He is the co-brand director for Budweiser Select.
- He is currently working to expand his 40/40 Club to 20 airports along with his business partners Juan and Desiree Perez.
- He is part owner of the Brooklyn Nets NBA team.
- He is currently developing J Hotels in Chelsea, NY.

Jay Z and billionaire Warren Buffet

- Through his company Gain Global Investment Network, LLC he has a 2-7% interest in a contract awarded to AEG to operate approximately 4,500 slot machines in the racino located in the Aqueduct Race Track.
- It is reported that he won the bid to acquire Block Starz Music, an independent record label featuring artist Wiz Khalifa, Big Sean, Lisa “Left Eye” Lopez, Machine Gun Kelly, Lega-C, Rhymefest, E-40 and Snoop Dogg. They are also the first record label to launch their own online television network.

Jay Z and billionaire Bill Gates

- Jay Z is the executive producer of the video game NBA 2K13
- In April 2013, ESPN reported that Jay Z is set to launch his own sports management team Roc Nation Sports.

According to Forbes, Shawn “Jay Z” Carter is worth $475 million, not bad for a high school drop out from the Marcy Projects...right?

Then this happened...

Barneys New York, an extremely upscale store, with prices that can run in the thousands for a sweat-shirt, became involved in a racial profiling scandal.

Trayon Christian, a 19 year old college student, was accused of shoplifting after he purchased a $359 Ferragamo belt and Kayla Phillips, experienced racial profiling when she purchased a $2,500 Celine bag at the same store.

Jay Z, who just happens to be a high end collaborator with the store, said this...

I am against discrimination of any kind, but if I make snap judgments, no matter who it's towards, aren't I committing the same sin as someone who profiles?

To be fair, that is only a small portion of the complete statement. Jay Z also mentioned that he wasn't making any money from the collaboration and that the Shawn Carter Foundation was making 25% of all sales which are going towards helping individuals that are facing socio-economic hardships to assist in furthering their education.

But let's call it what it is!

Despite Jay Z's well intentions, if you are taking money from an institution who discriminates against the people you are trying to help, that's a problem!

Not once did he mention in his statement that what was happening at Barneys was wrong or did he condemn them in any way.

Instead he focused on himself, stating...

Why am I being demonized, denounced and thrown on the cover of a newspaper for not speaking immediately?

Again to be fair, he says that pulling out of this project would not hurt him or Barneys but the people who the collaboration will help...but I'm sure that whoever receives those benefits would be pissed to know that they are receiving an education from the dollars and cents of a racist organization.

This may be a point lost on a former drug dealer turned mogul.

Sometimes the means doesn't justify the end and every dollar made doesn't always make sense.

November 5, 2013 - election day.

My main concern was Ken Cuccinelli, the republican Attorney General running for Governor in the great state of Virginia.

Let's start there.

In the event that there was a problem with Cucc's run for the Governorship, guess who gets to decide how to resolve that problem...the attorney general of the state. And Ken was/is the attorney general...pretty sweet deal, right?

Besides that obvious problem, the Cucc (pronounced cooch) also proposed this anti-sodomy law.

- If any person carnally knows in any manner any brute animal, or carnally knows any male or female person by the anus or by or with the mouth, or voluntarily submits to such carnal knowledge, he or she shall be guilty of a Class 6 felony.

Let me break down carnally for you (I had to look it up myself), in short it means relating to or given to crude bodily pleasure.

So basically the law makes anal and oral sex a Class 6 felony.

To be fair, if such a thing is possible, Section B of this law prohibits these acts from being performed on children and family members...but that is already illegal everywhere.

In fact, to read Section B of this law is unsettling.

In addition to having sodomy issues, Ken also donated thousands of dollars to anti-abortion centers that used scare tactics like beheaded fetuses and provided women with false information on the effects of having an abortion.

He was also tried to repeal Virginia's no fault divorce law, in a state where the divorce rate is among the lowest in the country.

The 2008 law was supposed to protect children by changing a quick divorce into a two year ordeal that would have without question put the children in a situation where instead of moving quickly and having time to heal, they are forced to be put in the middle of a bad situation that is being required, by law, to last as long as possible.

Even though Cuccinelli's views were extremely extreme, they still weren't extreme enough for the powers that be that control the strings of the Tea Party and they kept their hands in their pockets.

Cuccinelli's election was underfunded and he lost the election by a margin of 48 to 46 to Terry McAuliffe, a man who rented out the Lincoln bedroom for fundraising during the Clinton administration.

Where exactly did Cuccinelli fail?

Where did his policies fail to earn those precious Tea Party dollars?

In 2009, Cuccinelli was at the front lines of the Tea party and yet in 2013 they were nowhere to be found in his campaign finance records.

Another race I had my eye on was for Lieutenant Governor featuring the slightly this side of crazy E.W. Jackson, conservative activist and pastor.

The former marine and graduate of Harvard law was quoted blasting the gay community during his campaign...

Jackson connected homosexuality and pedophilia, and made strong claims that gays are "frankly very sick people psychologically, mentally and emotionally," they are incapable of love and their very presence is an attempt to "poison our children, divide them from their parents and the teaching of the church and basically turn them into pawns for that movement so that they can sexualize them at the earliest possible age." - The National Memo May 20, 2013

He has a number of memorable quotes...

"The Democrat Party [sic] has created an unholy alliance between certain so-called civil rights leaders and Planned Parenthood, which has killed unborn black babies by the tens of millions. Planned Parenthood has been far more lethal to black lives than the KKK ever was. And the Democrat Party [sic] and the black civil rights allies are partners in this genocide." - The National Memo May 20, 2013

And...

"The idea that Barack Obama is a Christian is laughable," he said. "Barack Obama is at best a confused man, is at worst has the sensibilities, and I don't know how this combination works, of an Atheist and a Muslim." - The National Memo May 20, 2013

We couldn't connect a money trail from the Tea Party to Jackson's campaign but there was plenty of support including a meet and greet sponsored by the Hampton Roads tea party.

During a Virginia Family Forum meeting, Jackson claimed "The Tea Party is a move of God to stir this nation's back to its conscience and back to its senses," Jackson told conservative activists. - Right Wing Watch October 29, 2013

Jackson's extremism was nothing short of absolutely dumbfounding. How can a candidate be so completely over the top and...well, it's happened.

The last race that I followed was between Alabama's Bradley Byrne and Tea Party favorite Dean Young.

Dean made headlines when...

- He said gay rights activists should "go back to California or Vermont or wherever they came from" if they don't like the policies in the Yellowhammer State.
- In an interview published in The Guardian, Dean was asked Where Obama was born? His answer - "That is what we call the $64,000 question! I have no idea!" He eventually answered Kenya.

On election night 2013, I sat laughing as each one of these Tea Party backed, support-ed...talked about, candidates fell by the way-side.

Why? Time for a history lesson!

The Boston Tea Party was a nonviolent political protest by the Sons of Liberty in Boston, on December 16, 1773. Disguised as Indians, the demonstrators destroyed the entire supply of tea sent by the East India Company in defiance of the American boycott of tea carrying a tax the Americans had not authorized. They boarded the ships and threw the chests of tea into Boston Harbor, ruining the tea. The British government responded harshly and the episode escalated into the American Revolution.

The Tea Party was the culmination of a resistance movement throughout British America against the Tea Act, which had been passed by the British Parliament in 1773. Colonists objected to the Tea Act because they believed that it violated their rights as Englishmen to "No taxation without representation," that is, be taxed only by their own elected representatives and not by a British parliament in which they were not represented.

There are two important things that we can learn from the original Tea Party.

- There was an actual injustice - Americans, um British colonist were forced to pay a tax on tea (which was very popular at the time) in order to offset Dutch smuggling and the elimination of the 25% duty on the import. Basically, the colonist were being asked to pick up the tab by a government where they had no voice.
- The protest was in support of the people against corporations.

If that same protest were held today by our version of the Tea Party, it might play out differently.

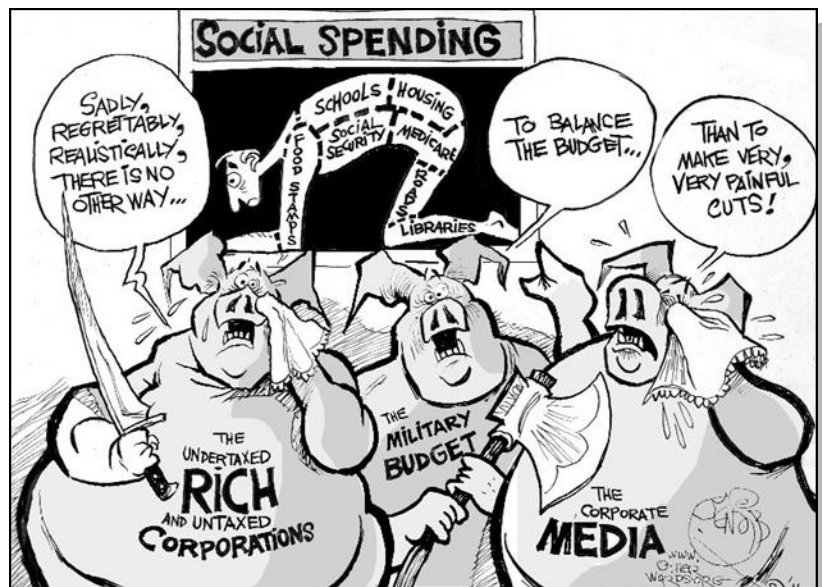

Call me crazy but today's Tea Party would protest the Sons of Liberty in favor of a so-called free market and freedom.

As the above cartoon depicts, it's no secret that all of today's Tea Party activities, protest and politicians are, for the most part, supported by billionaires...it's not an actual grassroots movement in any way shape or form.

They have taken a noble idea that eventually led to American independence and twisted it into something, some idea that Americans are willing to support.

Here are some of the things that today's Tea Party supports...

- Cutting $61 billion from the government's budget, mostly through social spending.

- They opposed the mortgage bailout.
- They oppose raising the debt limit, which doesn't give the government a blank check but allows the government to pay the bills that they have already accrued.
- Majority oppose gay marriage or civil unions
- They have forwarded the ideology that the President of the United States is illegitimate. That has resulted in a birther and socialist movement.
- They seem to share a common dislike of incumbents or establishment politicians. They are trying to remove more experienced/moderate republicans in favor of politicians with a far right ideology.
- They would like to privatize social security. You need look no further than ANYTHING that has been privatized to see how that would work out.
- 80% are against taxing the rich. Billionaires Rupert Murdoch, David and Charles Koch are the money behind Freedom Works, Americans for Prosperity and, Citizens for a Sound Economy to name a few.

- T.E.A. = Taxed enough already. Americans are paying the lowest tax rates in 30 years.
- They oppose abortion.
- They oppose affirmative action.
- They oppose animal rights
- They are strong opponents of any type of climate change legislation.
- They strongly support gun ownership.
- They support ending the capital gains tax - this is the taxation of income earned from stocks, bonds, precious metals and property.
- They oppose a pathway to citizenship for illegal immigrants.
- They are against the use of government services by illegal immigrants.

Again, call me crazy but the Tea Party Caucus is made up of some of the most controversial, divisive, ill-informed legislators that our government has to offer. While I would love to go into the background of each and every one of them, I present you with a few of the big hitters.

- Michele Bachmann - "I don't know how much God has to do to get the attention of the politicians. We've had an earthquake; we've had a hurricane. He said, 'Are you going to start listening to me here?' Listen to the American people because the American people are roaring right now. They know government is on a morbid obesity diet and we've got to rein in the spending." Bachmann said this at a presidential campaign event in 2011, suggesting that an earthquake and hurricane were a message from God - acting as the voice of the American people - telling, um...the American people, that God...or the American people (?) wanted to rein in government spending.

- Joe Barton - Joe is the guy that apologized to BP for dragging them before Congress to explain why the Gulf was an oil slick and people were dead. He put an end to autism research in favor of corporations that were polluting, fearing that the research might show that it caused autism. Joe was also nice enough to mention that signing on the the Obamacare website would result in disclosing personal medical information...LIE! That's what Barton is known for...lying!
- Rand Paul - With regard to the idea of whether you have a right to health care, you have realize what that implies. It's not an abstraction. I'm a physician. That means you have a right to come to my house and conscript me. It means you believe in slavery. It means that you're going to enslave not only me, but the janitor at my hospital, the person who cleans my office, the assistants who work in my office, the nurses. I'm a physician in your community and you say you have a right to health care. You have a right to beat down my door with the police, escort me away and force me to take care of you? That's ultimately what the right to free health care would be. I think this quote speaks for itself as it pertains to Rand's level of intelligence. To add salt to the wound, Paul was recently discovered plagiarizing a number of his speeches. He was reciting lines directly from Wikipedia...you gotta love it!
- Mike Lee - People need to understand that the reason we worry about raising taxes on anyone - even raising taxes in the rich - it's not that we're looking out for the rich, it's not that we're concerned that the rich won't be able to fend for themselves, because they will. It's because we worry about the consequences that will inevitably result from that action and that will hit the poorest among us the hardest. WTF? This is the type of quote that begs, and I mean begs for an explanation.

Then there is the new poster child for the Tea Party...

Ted Cruz

I can't believe we are giving this guy page space. His ridiculous antics and fake filibuster were meant to get him just that...more press.

The man wants to run for president for God's sake.

On September 24th, Ted took the floor to speak for 21 hours in an attempt to filibuster a bill that was going to be voted on anyway.

In case you aren't familiar with the filibuster process, representatives use the filibuster to stop a vote or confirmation or...anything. It's meant to stop or delay something.

When Ted Cruz took the floor, the vote was scheduled and it wasn't within the timeframe to stop the vote, so it was useless or...fake.

Here are some of the highlights from his 21 hour political fundraising event.

I will credit my father; he invented--this wasn't for the restaurant, but he did it anyway--he invented green eggs and ham. Tweet He did it two ways. No. 1, the easy way, is he put green food coloring in the eggs, chopped up ham in it. ``Green Eggs and Ham'' was my favorite book when I was a boy. The food coloring is a little bit cheating, but if you take some spinach and mix it into the eggs, the eggs turn green.

He had all sorts of clever final exam questions that he would give. He taught college algebra. I remember one of his final exam questions was: You have a triangle with sides 11, 20, and 9. Compute the area. You get students who would write pages and pages, trying to put all these various equations together, trying to figure out the area. Almost all of them were wrong. It is a basic rule of geometry, for a triangle the sum of any two sides has to be longer than the third side or else they don't actually meet. A triangle with sides of 20, 11, and 9--11 and 9 add up to 20. That is a straight line. The area is zero. So he enjoyed kind of coming up with clever final exam questions. That was one of them.

At one point, Mike Lee and Rand Paul interrupt Cruz to ask a question, how's that for getting your boys involved?

I didn't read the entire transcript but basically, he talked about his background, his Dad, read Green Eggs and Ham then did a little Star Wars improv where he proclaimed to be Mike Lee's father.

This is what the Tea Party has turned our politics into...a big improv.

These people are running for office, getting their facts from right wing blogs and political radio.

Once they are elected they are injecting absolute lies into political debate, asking questions during testimony that they just read that morning from some psycho with a computer with a grudge against the political process.

It's this type of bullshit that has Congress' approval ratings at 9%. To give you an idea of what this means, here's a short list of other approval ratings vs. Congress...

- Lines at DMV 58% Approval
- Jury Duty 73% Approval
- IRS 42% Approval

All these beat out Congress!

Even Zombies outpolled Congress!

That's why I was watching the races in Virginia and Mississippi!

Right now the GOP has a 64% unfavorable rating and The Tea Party is sitting at a 56% unfavorable rating.

I was elated that some of these new Tea Party supported candidates lost their runs for office.

Why?

They're bad for America!

It might be all fun and games to go out and convince a bunch of misinformed voters to vote you into office so you can recite books and movies on the floor of the Senate or pass legislation that makes vaginal probes a required procedure prior to having an abortion but believe me, there's someone waiting.

We can continue to ACTUALLY ignore what the majority of us believe in and continue with divisive politics until there is social unrest...that's step one.

It's divide and conquer.

It's not the corporations that are going to suffer when that someone, who is just waiting for America to fall apart so they can come in and impose their will...it will be the American people.

Through outsourcing, corporations have interest all over the world, they could give a shit about America, Americans or American interest...they care about cash.

They are purchasing our politics and the Tea Party candidates are the pawns that make up their front line.

They'll keep filling seats until they fill the most powerful seat...the White House.

The only way we will continue to be a strong nation will be to eliminate this cancer from our political process and discourse.

Either we do that or learn Chinese.

Interview w/ The Man on the Top Floor

For some reason, I thought it might be evil fun this month to ask our hard-working publisher of Top Floor, D. Dibrell, a bunch of gossipy questions about the most private, personal and intimate elements of his life. Why? Because that's just the kind of freaky badass chick I am! And after all, he is the founder of a sexy, erotic men's magazine, so naturally I'm curious about what turns him on, off, or just gets his attention.

So, here's my Top Ten Sexiest Questions .... and he'd better answer....or he might get a spankin'!

HW: What's your wildest sexual fantasy?

DD: This is going to be major boring because I'm married...very married. I really don't have wild sexual fantasies anymore. I'm more of a weekend getaway with my wife kind of guy now and I'm not just saying that. My wife and I spent a weekend at the Embassy Suites a couple of years ago.

The hotel has a happy hour where they serve free drinks, we got dressed, went down for drinks, came back to the room, played cards, listened to music...it was one of my most memorable times ever.

HW: What's the hottest porn scene you've ever watched? And I mean THE hottest, the one your mind goes to repeatedly when you want to really get turned on?

DD: The hottest was with Angelina Valentine and another woman...both squirters. They were just going to town on this guy, it was crazy. The bed was soaking wet, it was too hot! Also, ANYTHING with Vanessa del Rio or Monica Santhiago. Joyce Oliveira is a fave and Montana Fishburne's sex tape is ridiculous. Montana is my, hands down, amateur favorite.

HW: What's your fave song/music for lovemaking...

DD: This won't be a big surprise for anyone who knows me but...Prince, songs by Prince. Though my favorite is Take Care of You by Shanice, every man wants to feel like he's being taken care of.

HW: Do you enjoy talking "dirty" to get your lady in the mood, and if so, what's your absolutely favorite "dirty" word(s)? Don't hold back...be honest!

DD: Dirty talk, not so much. Even in porn, I think it can be a little much.

HW: Shaved, unshaved, or do you have a preference?

DD: I'll answer this from a publisher point of view. I personally don't have a preference. I'm from a time when having a bit of hair down there was acceptable. When I first started watching porn and checking out magazines, it was rare that a woman would be completely shaved so I guess I'm a bit old school. However, in today's world and as far as TFM models go, I think that shaved is better.

HW: Most embarrassing thing that's ever happened to you in a sexual situation?

DD: I so wish I had an answer to this one but I haven't had anything embarrassing happen. Never walked in on or anything that I would consider embarrassing.

HW: What was your "first time" like?

DD: Wow! I really had to think about this one. If I remember my first time correctly and I don't remember much, the girl changed into some leopard print negligee. I thought that was really weird but when I think back she was trying to be sexy. Everything about it was weird to me, I remember that. It was like a show. Imagine if it was your first time and your partner goes through the trouble of dressing up in something sexy and going through this whole seduction thing. Maybe, that's how it happens for most guys, I don't know. In my case, she was a bit older, she knew what she was doing, I didn't and it wasn't what I had imagined sex would be...except for the ending. Again, looking back, it was exactly how it should be but I was just too inexperienced to know it.

HW: You've interviewed a lot of very hot porn/adult stars. If you could have a three way, which two would you pick to fulfill your freakiest sexual scenario?

DD: That's a good one! A tough one to answer. You've interviewed a few as well. I really like Kayme Kai, who you interviewed! I like Vanessa del Rio, though the actual interview fell through, I still had the pleasure of talking to her. Shay Golden would be at the top if it was strictly based on personality, I talked to her for about an hour or more off-line, she was just funny and entertaining. I actually had the opportunity to Skype with Jayla Starr, who was dressed in this unbelievable black outfit. It took every bone in my body to remain professional for that one, the top she was wearing was open to her belly button. However, if I had to pick two, it would be the Angelinas. Angelina Castro and Angelina Valentine. I love Angelina Castro's teeth! Great smile!

HW: What are your three favorite parts of a woman's body?

DD: Hair, eyes and breast...in that order.

HW: I know you admire the biggest playboy of them all, Hugh Hefner....if you were ever lucky enough to meet him at the Playboy mansion, what one question would you ask him?

DD: I would hand him a copy of TFM and ask him to read it.

So, D. now you know what it feels like to answer naughty questions instead of always being the one asking them! Thanks for being a good sport and letting us inside your own sexy world! I'm sure Hef would be proud of you!

Reporting the news without ANY Facts

Washington, DC - Sources indicate that President Barack Obama has been involved in negotiations with Kenyan President Uhuru Kenyatta to make Kenya a state. Obama first considered the move to purchase Kenya at the start of the birther movement claiming that in order to legitimize his presidency, Kenya would have to be granted statehood in the United States. There's no word as to whether or not Kenyatta will accept but a close aide to the president claims that in the next few years it won't even matter.

Wasilla, AK - A source close to Sarah Palin recently told TFM that after the publicity for Palin's new book dies down, she is planning on releasing a sex tape.

According to our source, the film has been in production since Palin was a candidate for VP.

Some of the highlights include a super sexy hot tub scene with former running mate John McCain, a disturbing threesome with Roger Ailes and Rupert Murdoch and a Mandingo style gangbang with a few newbies in the porn business.

It's scheduled for release Summer of 2014.

Chappaqua, NY - During a time when there are rumors that Hillary Clinton may run for the POTUS in 2016. Our sources claim that the Oval office is the last thing on Hillary's mind. According to that source, Hillary has finally decided to have sex with Bill again. According to a source close to Hillary, she had a hard time forgiving Bill for having an affair with Monica Lewinsky and has denied him the yum, yum since she found out about it. On the eve on what could be a successful presidential run Hillary has decided to forgive and give Bill some boom, boom.

Washington, DC - House Majority leader Eric Cantor recently released a statement telling John Boehner to lighten up or get out of the GOP.

According to sources close to Cantor, there are a number of GOP members that are fed up with Boehner's dark tan and constant crying during meetings.

Cantor claimed that working with Boehner was like working with a whiny, wimpy orange.

After hearing this, Boehner cried and left for his spray tan appointment.

Jack Watson's Complete Guide To Creating

Black and White
Female
Glamour
Images From Nudes To Fashion

By Jack Watson

Award-winning photographer Jack Watson has crafted a unique book dedicated to female glamour images created in black and white to honor the famous Hollywood stills photographers of the 1920's and 30's. With the help of a large collection of stunning glamour models who have been featured globally in many print, web, and video media including Playboy Enterprises™, Watson shows you how he creates sensuous, seductive glamour black and white images out of virtually any color glamour photograph. Dispelling the myth that not all color images make good black and white images, this book illustrates how virtually any glamour photo can be used to create the look of the Hollywood masters.

Jack Watson's Complete Guide to Creating Black and White Female Glamour Images includes a CD with every photo in the book. All of the black and white photos started out as color digital files. They have been provided in their original color form for your unrestricted non-commercial use. This book is for those who have some basic Photoshop skills and want to broaden their horizons and experiment with additional plug-ins and software such as Nik Color Efex Pro Complete, Nik Silver Efex Pro, Topaz Adjust, and Topaz BW Effects. It's also for anyone who just loves looking at beautiful black and white female glamour images.

While most of the images in the book are "sexy" in nature, a number of examples show how sexy is not always the naked truth, but quite the contrary. Clothed or nude, the female form is a thing of beauty. At the very least, this book will make you rethink what is truly glamorous. Creating black and white glamour photos will help you see with your brain and feel with your heart. Remember it's not what you see in a photograph that moves you; it's what you don't see. So, boot up your computer, open your favorite photo software, and put the CD in the drive, and create some magic.
